

OCEAN BANK PRESENTS $1 MILLION CHECK TO CAMILLUS HOUSE AT ANNUAL THANKSGIVING FEAST

Miami, FL, December 3, 2007 – Ocean Bank celebrated Thanksgiving with a tangible display of gratitude – it presented a $1 million check to Camillus House for the organization’s homeless feeding program.

Ocean Bank President and CEO, Jose Concepcion and Director Tony Cabrera joined the Brothers of the Good Shepherd, Camillus House board members and staff and more than 160 volunteers at Camillus House’s annual Thanksgiving Feast. The bank’s latest gift of $1 million will provide continuing financial support for the Camillus House Food Program, and will fund the construction of the Ocean Bank Nutritional Facility on the new 340-bed Camillus House Campus, planned for construction in 2008.

“This year again we are proud to sponsor this very important event, hopefully bringing some joy to the people attending this Thanksgiving feast,” Concepcion said. “Ocean Bank also hopes to provide year-round relief to those people in our community who need it the most through our support for the Food Program and the construction of the new facility.” The bank has sponsored the traditional meal for the past 10 years. Camillus House serves more than 1,300 meals a day, providing more than 500,000 free, hot meals each year.
